To Whom It May Concern:

Teens need an outlet, someone they can speak to and relate to their personal situation. They often believe that adults have never encountered as a child sadness, depression, death and even low self-esteem. But Mr. Mike T. Smith, Youth Motivational Speaker and author of O.W.N. I. T. The Teen's Cheat Codes to Life, told them just the opposite. I had the privilege to work with Mike at Hume Preparatory Academy in November 2013 with my group of young ladies discussing owning up to your responsibilities. The young ambassadors were amazed how this Caucasian man was able to relate to what African Americans go through. His tone, his character, his reasoning's gave them the opportunity to see that it's truly not about your race or your zip code that makes you but it's the choices of ALL people that can break you.

Mike was professional and passionate in getting the ambassadors to understand they have to OWN IT without any excuses. They understood that Others Will Not Interrupt Today or Tomorrow because Mike made it clear that "Life can be a tough game, but you can win-sometimes you just need a little help."

I recommend Mike T. Smith as a Youth and Adult Motivational Speaker because truly adults also need to O.W.N. I.T! If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at (901) 262-8642.
